

<https://ferventoptimal.com/job/project-manager-iii-waterfall-remote/>

Project Manager III-Waterfall-Remote

Hiring organization
Fervent Optimal

Date posted
November 20, 2024

Description

Person should have experience in Infrastructure (network, End User Systems) implementations in Data Centers and retail

Responsible for end-to-end execution and on time, on budget and on scope delivery of the project

Responsible for Financial Management, Risk Management and Dependency management for the project

Responsible for developing a comprehensive project plan

Works with the resource manager on the resource planning for the project

Accountable for maintaining the RAAIDD log

Escalates when required and holds people accountable for mitigation and resolution of risk and issues

Works with Project Accountants to get information for Financial Management on the project

Responsible for managing changes in project scope, objectives, requirements, and resources and adherence to change control policies

Collaborates with solution team to take the project through change control process when required

Collaborates with other project managers for dependencies and manages them with minimal impact to delivery

Manages and tracks interdependencies and interfaces with related projects

Collaborates with the solution team to ensure adherence to release management practices on the project

Accountable and responsible for receiving Go-No-Go Signoff

Holds delivery teams accountable for the development of architecture design document, test plans, deployment and hypercare plan

Reporting & Communication

Sets and manages stakeholder expectations

Responsible for project level governance and status reporting to right stakeholders at cadence

Keeps the Portfolio Lead and Program Manager informed on all the risks, issues and dependencies on the projects and seeks help when necessary

Responsible for issuing a communication close out email for the project and other close out activities including updating Clarity and retrospectives

Responsible for issuing communications for major changes (Before and after the change) that affect multiple applications and/or stores

People Leadership

Set vision for the project, analysis and resolves issues.

Understand the team's perspectives and protects the team by negotiating with stakeholders as required.

Process, Tools, Standards, and Continuous Improvement

Accountable to follow ADUSA IT processes and ensures all artifacts are produced and phase gate approvals are obtained

Coaches and mentors, the project team on the process and tools

Provide feedback and recommendations to improvement of ADUSA IT processes

Certifications: None Noted

Degree/Education: BA degree preferred but not required

Years Of Experience: at least 10 years of PM experience

Interview Process: 15 min conversation and second round with team and 3rd potential with the Director